HEAVY FIGHTING RAGING IN THE CAMBRAI BATTLE AREA BRITISH PUSH DETERMINEDLY ON--TEUTONS LAUNCH ATTACK

GUARDMEN IN FRANCE FROM EACH OF STATES

Official Announcement Is Finally Made.
Some Within Sound of the Enemy Guns.

(By Associated Press Cable)
With the American Army in France, November 29.—National Guardsmen from every state in the Union have arrived in France. It is today announced. They are among the troops now training or lately arrived.
While it is not permitted to disclose the identity of the units it may be said that all who sailed from the United States have arrived safely and some are training within sound of the guns on the battlefield.
American aviators are now training with the American troops.

MOVEMENTS OF U.S. TROOPS SUCCESSFULLY CARRIED OUT

First Official Announcement Discloses Tremendous Troop Movements Have Been Successful.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)
Washington, November 30.—An announcement of the arrival in France of the first guard units is the first official notice that an extensive troop movement has been accomplished, despite hostile submarines, shortage of troops and supply ships and other obstacles, but without the loss of a man.
Thousands have been moved to the seaboard from all parts of the country, loaded on vessels and safely landed in France without any general knowledge of the facts having been disclosed to the country at large.
War Department officials were gratified at General Pershing's decision to increase the arrival of the National Guard forces.
Secretary Baker has announced that as fast as men and ships are ready they will be combined and additional forces sent to join General Pershing's forces.

CORONER'S STORY AIDS DEFENDANT

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)
Concord, N. C., November 30.—Dr. W. H. Burmeister, coroner's physician, of Cook county, Ill., testifying for the state on cross examination in the trial of Gaston B. Means, charged with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King, today said the pistol that inflicted the wound causing her death was not in contact with the head when fired.

E. T. Cansler, counsel for the defense, brought from the witness repeated declarations that it would have been a physical impossibility for a woman of Mrs. King's stoutness to have held a pistol in the position necessary to have caused the wound.

15000 WORD QUERY ASKED BY ATTORNEYS

Defendant Was Insane Is Defense of Mrs. DeSaules.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)
Mineola, L. I., November 30.—Mrs. Blanch De Saules was not mentally sound, "did not know the nature of or quality of the act" or "did not know it was wrong," when she shot her former husband at his Long Island home, according to experts who testified today in her behalf.

This opinion was given in response to a 15,000 word hypothetical question put by attorneys for the defense.

It embraces some of the evidence taken during the trial.

It recited each circumstance during Mrs. De Saules's life which her attorneys maintained may have influenced her mind on the night of the shooting at the De Saules home.

In reference to presenting the question it was pointed out the New York laws provide no persons shall be convicted of a crime committed while the defendant was suffering from such a defective reason as not to know the nature and quality of the act or as not to know it was wrong.

WILL INVESTIGATE BOXING CONTESTS

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)
Cleveland, O., November 30.—Investigation into boxing in general and specifically the death of "El Paso" Jimmy Wilson, middleweight pugilist who died yesterday following a bout at a local club Wednesday night, was indicated today in the announcement that the Coroner, Chief of Police and detectives and the County Prosecutor would confer as to what charge would be placed against Otto Wenzel, Pittsburgh pugilist, Wilson's opponent, held by the police in connection with Wilson's death.

DROPPED DEAD

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)
Toledo, O., November 30.—John Smurr, aged 33, ate a hearty Thanksgiving dinner last evening, got up from the table and fell over dead.

Dispatches Do Not Disclose Whether It Is Counter Attack or an Effort to Flank British.

Haig and Byng Still Push Forward Toward Cambrai.

Berlin Reports Successful Attack on French North of Braya and Capture of Prisoners.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Dispatches from the British front in France report an attack by the Germans in progress in the Cambrai battle area. The point struck at lies at the southern part of the salient formed by General Byng's recent attack.

The early dispatches did not disclose whether the attack was a relatively important counter attack or an attempt to push in behind the British.

The British are reported pushing forward toward Cambrai and have made a slight advance west of Bourlon.

It is reported from Berlin that the Germans have made a successful attack against the French positions north of Braya and captured prisoners.

LESSENING ATTACKS ON THE ITALIANS

No infantry action of importance is reported from the Italian front. Berlin claims the repulse of an Italian attack west of the Brenta and west of the Piave. Violent artillery action is in progress at several points on the Italian front.

The lessening of the intensity of the enemy attack along the northern Italian front is regarded as forecasting troop movement activities to other points.

U. S. AVIATORS THERE

A substantial vanguard of the American aviators who will operate in France has arrived and is located near the fighting front.

BOLSHEVIKI FALLS NOW REPORTED

Conditions in Russia apparently remain unsettled. It is reported that the Lenin government has fallen and has given way to a socialist coalition cabinet in which the Bolsheviks are represented.

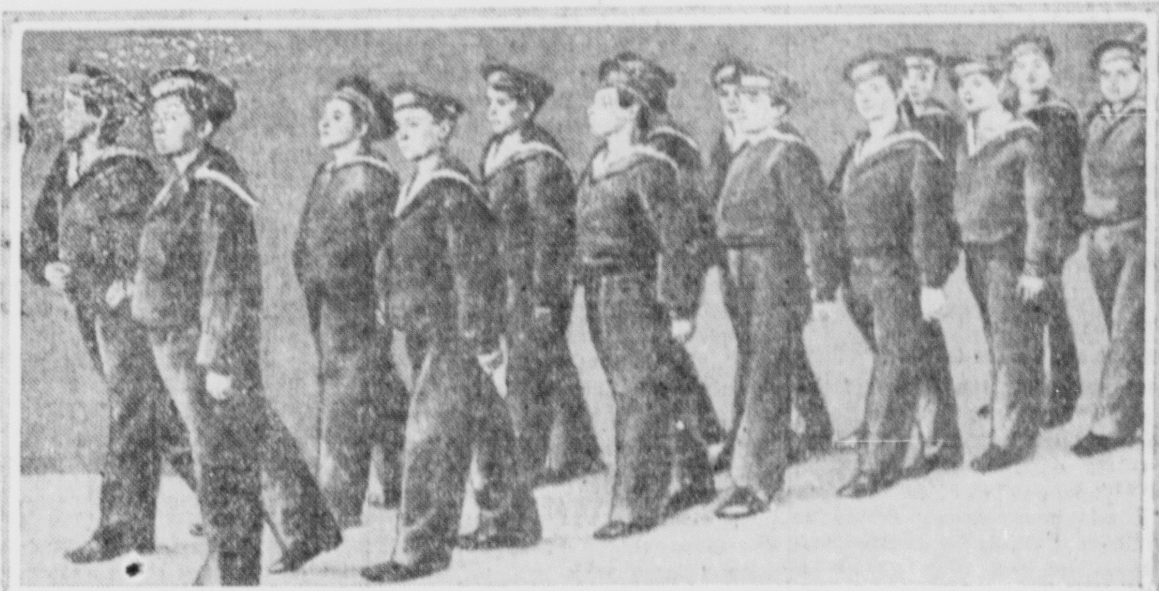

The German Chancellor has declared before the Reichstag that the Central Powers still stood by their answers to the peace note of the Pope and stated the Central Powers were not responsible for prolongation of the war.

Much discussion has been provoked in England by publication of a letter from the Marquis of Lansdowne, a veteran political leader. He pleads for a revision of the war plans of the Allies, and an attempt to obtain peace before they lead to the ruin of the civilized world.

The letter has caused such a sensation that it will be the subject of a debate in the British House of Commons.

The Evening News at London says Chancellor Bonar Law has repudiated the letter, describing it as "a disaster."

RUSSIAN WOMEN TAKE PLACES OF MEN SAILORS

RUSSIAN WOMEN SAILORS

Russian women are now organizing themselves as sailors to take the places of the men of the new republic's navy who have deserted their posts under the influence of Socialistic propaganda. Here are shown some of the Amazons who are preparing to join the fleet in the Baltic. High service may be expected from these sailor women. The women of Russia have already proved their calibre. Their "Battalions of Death" have received their baptisms of fire and blood on several fields where thousands of masculine soldiers deserted. In view of the spirit shown by these women, one wonders if the order of nature has been reversed among the Slavs.

TOLERANT POLICIES FOR RUSS

American Government Will Wait, Hoping for Triumph of Sane Democracy.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Washington, November 30.—The American government is shaping what is described as a tolerant policy in dealing with Russia in her present straits, so as to show hope and faith for the ultimate triumph of a sane democracy.

Contracts for supplies of material for Russia would go forward as usual in the hope that they would be applied to the cause of the world democracy.

AUSTRIA WILL DEAL WITH BOLSHEVIKI

(Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, November 30.—The Austro-Hungarian government has sent an official reply accepting the Russian government's proposal to enter into negotiations for an armistice. The reply was sent yesterday and follows:

"The guiding principle announced by the Russian government for negotiating for an armistice and peace treaty, counter proposals to which are awaited, are in the opinion of the Austro-Hungarian government a suitable basis for entering upon negotiations. The Austro-Hungarian govern-

Despondent Woman Walks into Ohio River and Is Swept Away by Current.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Newport, Ky., November 30.—Worry over the illness of her husband is believed to have caused Mrs. James Smith, aged 37, of Cambridge, Ohio, to drown herself in the Ohio river here today. She was seen to enter the water and the current carried her under. She was visiting her sister.

MARSHALL NAMED ON NAT'L DEFENSE

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Washington, November 30.—L. C. Marshall, dean of the School of Commerce and Administration of the University of Chicago, today was appointed chief of the section on Industrial Service of the Council of National Defense. He will direct an inquiry as to the labor supply for industries holding government contracts.

DOUBLE SHOOTING THEN SUICIDE

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Toledo, O., November 30.—Carl R. Walburg, a machinist, aged 49, shot his wife and her escort, Frank Cole, last night, then hanged himself in a police station cell.

Mrs. Walburg, aged 39, is near death with a breast wound and two wounds in her back. Cole sustained only a slight scalp wound.

The shooting occurred in front of a rooming house conducted by Mrs. Walburg, as she and Cole were returning from a picture theater. The Walburgs have been separated 14 months.

State Fuel Administration Puts Request Up to National Authorities.

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Columbus, O., November 30.—The Federal Fuel Administration for Ohio was awaiting word from higher authorities today as to what will be done about coal in transit to the lakes under the priority order issued today.

The Ohio office has made the suggestion that all coal consigned to the lakes and tied up in transit be unloaded where it is sidetracked, thereby giving relief to scores of cities and towns, and at the same time releasing cars quickly.

VON HERTLING DESIRES A FEW BILLION MARKS

(Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, November 30.—The war credit of 15,000,000,000 marks asked for by Von Hertling, passed its first and second readings in the Reichstag yesterday, after brief remarks by Von Haase. The third reading has been set for Saturday.

FORMER NAVY HEAD DIES IN CONCORD

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Concord, N. H., November 30.—William Eaton Chandler who, as secretary of the navy in President Arthur's cabinet, was largely responsible for the beginning of the modern United States navy, died here today.

WORLD IS ON FIRE, WRITES WALTER PATTON IN FRANCE

Every American Should Realize that He or She Has a Part in the War and Should Do It, Is the Warning from Y. M. C. A. Worker.

Popular and Patriotic Former Local Y. M. C. A. Secretary Writes Interestingly of Life in War Zones—Wants Letters and Pictures.

The Herald is in receipt of another intensely interesting letter from Walter Patton, who left the Y. M. C. A. work in this city a few months ago for the larger field with the Y. M. C. A. at the front in France.

It required just 15 days for the letter to make the trip from the American Army Post "somewhere in France" back to this city. It is complimentary to Mr. Patton to know that his letter arrived without a single mark on the part of the censor.

The letter speaks for itself. Here it is:

Editor The Herald:

First of all, I want to tell you how much I appreciate the copies of the Herald I have received. I was never much interested in personals before. I've surely enjoyed reading them here. When you consider the fact that I was pretty deeply rooted in Washington C. H., so far as affections are concerned and then, all of a sudden, to be torn up and transplanted thousands of miles away, where I don't know a single soul that I knew before coming, you can imagine just what those personal items mean to me. And in writing home, and to the few people in W. C. H., I have been able to write to, I've told them the most important things to send me were letters and kodak pictures. I owe my friends this explanation, that I have been working under circumstances that are so arduous and inconvenient, that it has been simply impossible for me to look after this personal matter of writing letters. But if any one there is interested and philanthropic-spirited enough to write, I'll surely answer.

Rigid Censorship.

I suppose you had hoped I'd be able to give you more news of the war. I, too, had hoped to sum up to all of my friends the real first-hand news. But the first information I got on censorship here took that notion completely out of my head. We simply can't mention any military matter. As a matter of fact, the only things that one is really safe on is one's health and the weather.

We can see things working out here perhaps a little more in detail than you can at home. But the bigger movements are given better by the press than we can see them, or know them. You really get more news of the actual fighting than we can. However, it doesn't take long here to realize that the winning of the war must be the prime factor in all our lives.

War A Real Menace.

How I wish I could impress upon the people of my town, and every American citizen, that every act and every thought of their lives should be given to this end. That means that every one should ask himself the question in regard to everything he does or says: "Is this thing going to subtract or add to the fighting efficiency of this country?" Perhaps that sounds strange from a religious worker and pacifist—for I've always been that. But I know that is the one path now open to us for peace.

With Mass Troops.

The Y. M. C. A. has a very efficient organization here. We had received our appointments within three days after arriving in Paris. That is more surprising when you know the many obstacles there are in the way of speed. I was sent to the second division for work among the New England troops. The day after my arrival at headquarters of this division, I was working on my job. My first work was among Connecticut troops. About a week later I was transferred and was given charge of the troops in these villages with two assistants. These were Massachusetts troops, among whom I am still working. There has recently arrived a bunch of Vermont and Massachusetts machine gun men.

Soldiers Cheer "Y" Work.

I wish I could tell you how wildly enthusiastic the men are when our truck rolls into this town. It makes an ordinary secretary feel like a football hero, to be welcomed as we are welcomed, with cheers that ring of joy. If I could only make you feel how important even the simple facilities for letter writing are, you would be able to appreciate what the "Y" means in this foreign field. Then add to that, lights, chairs, tables, a piano, phonograph, candy and smokes and many other articles necessary to the welfare and comfort of any individual—and especially welcome to the soldier who has forgotten or didn't know the things he should bring. Why, doesn't he go to town and buy these things? The enlisted man doesn't get to leave camp very often and besides the stores don't carry the things he wants.

Entertain the Soldiers.

But the really important work of the "Y" isn't the canteen business nor furnishing conveniences. It's to educate and entertain. We have already had a number of lectures and entertainers come to our building. But more than this is to get the men to entertain themselves. Thursday night we had our stunt night. The different companies presented so many numbers for a program. We decorated up with Japanese lanterns, American and French flags. We erected a stage with bacon boxes and table tops. Our program consisted of songs, dances, monologues and readings. It was really good, for it's surprising how much talent can be picked up in a bunch of men like this. Our next entertainments of a local talent will be given by the different companies, each one taking a night. That will mean competition. Later we will put on a minstrel show and perhaps even something in the way of a drama.

Planning For Christmas.

We already are making plans for Christmas. We've arranged for the fellows to have their gifts sent, care of the "Y." That way they won't be opened until Christmas Eve, at least. Then, we're getting names of men who've been interested in the different companies in their home towns and are writing them to get them to send gifts for the company as a whole, or something for the fellow who may not receive anything. We're going to have a tree and a program that will be worth while and cheer the fellows up at the most homesick season of the year. I could go on all night writing of what we're doing and what we're going to do. It's really the most important work that any Y. M. C. A. man can do right now.

Interested in Fayette.

I have been wondering whether the Fayette people have done anything in the way of raising funds for the work. You know it is not because I am personally interested, but because they are personally interested, that I am suggesting that they should get on the job. If they haven't already. If they've got boys going to war, they shouldn't let some other community raise the funds to take care of them. If they haven't got boys going, they should do all the more.

World Is On Fire.

I'm sorry I couldn't have gotten this thing under way before leaving. But after I accepted the foreign work job, it made the thing a rather personal matter and I thought I would leave the fund raising to some one else. I know that a good many people say that the town and county have already been hard hit for things of this sort. But let them remember, that the world is on fire today, and their effort which is represented by their money when they can't go themselves, is the thing that will stop the conflagration, and just as men will fight a fire that threatens their homes, to the point of complete exhaustion just so we've got to fight this fire, with our lives and our money.

I had only expected in this letter to tell you something of our work, without making this appeal but I've noticed that they're going out for a big sum for the National budget and felt that the people there would get into the game. And how I hope they will! I expect to come home, after this thing is all over, and live in W. C. H. once more. And I sure do want this one more reason for feeling proud of my town.

Give my good wishes to all of the people and tell them I'll write them as soon as I possibly can—but in the meantime, not to hesitate to write me. Very sincerely,

WALTER PATTON.

MRS. MARY M'COY CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Mary McCoy, widow of Mr. Abraham McCoy, died Wednesday night at half past seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jesse Dailey, who nursed her during the past eight weeks, which terminated years of illness.

Mrs. McCoy was 71 years of age and had spent the greater part of her life in this county, coming to the Sugar Grove neighborhood from Ross county when but a girl of sixteen.

Her first husband was John Jarnagan, who died in '81. Some years later she married Mr. McCoy, one of the pioneer land owners of the county.

The only son, Charles Jarnagan, of Hartford City, Indiana, was with his mother during her last illness.

Mrs. McCoy was an active church woman and her generous nature and many kind acts had won more than the allotted shares of friends.

Funeral services are being held at Grace church this afternoon to be followed by burial in the Sugar Grove cemetery.

TAX BOOKS OPEN

County Treasurer Duff announces that the books are now open at his office for receiving the December installment of taxes.

The present installment will doubtless result in the heaviest collection in the history of the office, owing, primarily, to the large amount of street and other special assessments. As a consequence the office force will be pushed to capacity to handle the work and those who would avoid the inconvenience of the later rush hours are urged to call as early as possible.

NO ARRESTS MADE ON THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving day passed off in this city more quietly than at any time in recent years, according to Chief Moore, who states that no arrests were made throughout the day, whereas the number is usually a half dozen.

Very few complaints of any kind reached police headquarters during the day and night.

The high price of booze is said to have something to do with the lack of drunks on the festival day.

The War Board of Ohio Today Says:

The food situation grows more serious every day the war continues.

Back lot gardens and their home-canned products will save the day for many American homes this winter.

The Food Administration encourages home canning and has repeatedly denied reports circulated by enemies that the government contemplated confiscating these products.

The latest lie to be circulated among American homes that these home-canned products were likely to spoil is an effort to induce housewives to dispose of their home pack.

Hold onto your canned fruits and vegetables.

Refill your jars as they are emptied or if any of them are found to be "working."

Many things are still available for canning in small quantities, such as pumpkin, squash, carrots, parsnips, spinach and turnips.

There may be dire need of food among our own people before the winter is over. Many a soldier's family may need help.

If you find you have put up more canned goods than you will need, there will be plenty of time and plenty of ways to dispose of it later.

Social and Personal

At half past six o'clock Wednesday evening, Miss Fannie Hyer daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hyer became the bride of Mr. Albert Bachert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bachert, only the immediate families and half a dozen close friends witnessing the ceremony at the First Presbyterian church.

Rev. William Boynton Gage officiated, using a new and impressive English Congregational service, a simple ring ceremony. Also adding to the quiet beauty of the nuptial was a beautiful musical program artistically rendered by Mrs. F. Davis, organist and Miss F. Kessler violinist. "I love you" — Carrie Jacobs Bond — was played just before the Lohengrin march and during the ceremony Mendelssohn's "To A Wild Rose" followed by Mendelssohn's march.

The bride was a very lovely bride who carried her train all white and was extremely becoming to her fair complexion. Her toilette was of white crepe, a meteor and georgette, a crope, a hat, shoes, gloves of white and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, superb specimens of the florist's skill.

At the close of the ceremony the young couple received congratulations in the reception room of the church and the guests wrote their names in a dainty marriage book presented by the minister.

The bride's gifts to the musicians were enamel pins.

Mr. Charles Robinson ushered.

Following the wedding the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bachert, and sister Miss Ella, entertained the young couple and the bride's parents at a handsome wedding dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bachert left on the 6:30 train for a wedding trip in the south. The bride's going away gown was a smartly tailored suit of blue broadcloth, with black panne velvet hat, trimmed in Paradise Aigrette.

The wedding is of interest to a wide extended circle of friends, who are eagerly awaiting Mr. and Mrs. Bachert's return to shower them with best wishes. The bride is a charming girl of many lovable traits of character and the bridegroom an all round good fellow who counts his friends by the score.

Bonds in this city and county have received the following wedding announcement:

"Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood announce the marriage of their daughter, Ebel Annas to Mr. Clinton Albin Blue, Wednesday, November 28, 1917, at Columbus, Ohio." The bride's parents reside east of this city, and for sometime the bride has been making her home in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hickel of Johnson Crossing entertained to a elaborate turkey dinner, Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Collins, of Clarksville, O., Miss Isadora Fickel, of Indianapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnson entertained with an attractive Thanksgiving dinner at their country home near New Martinsburg. The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Russell McGee and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McCoy, of Good Hope, Misses Margaret and Lillie Littrell and Miss Ethel Johnson, of near New Martinsburg.

Tuesday night's Browning Club meeting offered much of interest in young girl down the path of knowledge. This beautiful memorial of a wonderful woman was fitting introduction to 1,000 of square feet of canvas covered wall.

In the U. S. section nothing was hung for medals except paintings produced within the last ten years. "The Flight of Night" by Hunt, in the place of honor in one section of the large palace won medal. "Nature the Consoling Mother," a beautiful woman clothed in wonderful filmy green, sat upon her throne in the forest and to her came poet, lover, musician, wounded animal, bird—all things found in nature consolation for their woes.

After many visits to these art galleries it was felt that all the beauty of the centuries had been imprisoned for one fleeting year in this city of the Sun.

Mrs. Chapman added a beautiful piano solo, "Etude" — Wollenhaupt.

Washington friends of the bride have received the following announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hamilton announce the marriage of their daughter Retta Leona to George Fulton

Saturday, November twenty-fourth Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen Xenia, Ohio.

At Home After December First R. R. Osborn, Ohio

The bride is the grand daughter of the late Dr. E. C. Hamilton.

A very pretty wedding of the Thanksgiving season took place at the home of Mrs. W. O. Reid, in Jeffersonville, Thursday evening, when the daughter, Gladys, plighted her troth to Mr. Howard Sears, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Sears, also of Jeffersonville.

The guests were confined to twenty-five relatives and intimate friends.

Large pink chrysanthemums and greenery added effective decoration to the home.

Rev. McKinnon, of the M. P. church performed the ceremony.

Miss Florence Ervin, a charming maid, beautifully gowned in dove grey chiffon taffeta, with silver trimmings, and Mr. Charles Seibert, in the capacity of best man, preceded the bride and groom.

The bride looked exceedingly pretty in her bridal attire, a handsome creation of white net over cloth of gold, with gold trimming. Her bouquet was of bride's roses.

She is quite young, having graduated from the 1917 class of the Jeffersonville high school.

A wedding supper followed congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears left amid a shower of rice, for a wedding trip to Cleveland and Oberlin. Upon their return they will make their home with the bridegroom's parents. Mr. Sears is engaged in the grocery business with his father. Both young people are popular with a host of friends, who are extending best wishes.

Hon. and Mrs. C. A. Reid, Mrs. Mary Patton and Miss Metha Patton were Washington guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mark entertained with an elegant dinner at their country home near Glendon, Thanksgiving. Scarlet carnations and greenery gave brilliant table decoration.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. John King, daughter Miss Lorie, Mrs. George L. White, of Xenia, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce King and son Mark.

The initial dance given by the Chi Delta Chi club Thanksgiving night at the K. of P. hall, scored success and crowned the charming young girls who were its sponsors with social laurels.

It was a beautiful ball, to which soft moonlight effects, cleverly devised, in which the merry dancers threw confetti and serpentine, added picturesque charm. The hall was brilliantly decorated in red, white and blue and the girls showered confetti and serpentine from fancy pink bags and pink and white baskets.

Splendid music was furnished by a Saxophone trio, and spirited waltz circles were features of the dance.

Forty-five couples followed the lead of Miss Helen McKee and Floyd Stewart of Camp Sherman in the grand march, forming at nine-thirty.

The sponsors for the dance were Misses Helen McKee, Mary Casey, Aileen Hess, Helen Baker, Mary Hannah Bliss, Jocelyn Bowen, Ruth Hagler, Marie Sharp, Eleanor Jones, Rosalie Slagle, Isabelle O'Neal.

Among the guests were society young people from Chillicothe, Camp Sherman, Wilmington, Greenfield, Zanesville, Columbus, Mt. Sterling, Williamsport, Hillsboro, Hamilton.

Mrs. Herbert E. Louis entertained with an enjoyable family dinner on Thursday at her home in New Holland.

The guests were Mrs. J. L. Chapman, daughter Miss Lucile, son Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Flee and children and Mr. Dan Brannon of Hamilton.

In honor of the sixth birthday of her cunning little daughter Martha, Mrs. Jack Stone entertained with a delightful children's party Wednesday afternoon.

The little hostess in white with pink bows received her guests with winsome grace and was the recipient of a number of beautiful gifts.

Thirty-six children spent a merry afternoon at play, and were delighted with the birthday cake ablaze with pink candles. The favors were toy balloons. Pink chrysanthemums were effectively used in decoration.

Mr. A. B. Coons and Mrs. Maggie Bell Porter were married Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage. They left at once for a short trip. Their future home will be made in this city.

At one-thirty Thursday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington united in marriage, Miss Alta Grace Garringer, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Garringer of the Chillicothe pike, and Mr. William F. Irvine son of Mrs. Thomas Irvine.

For the present Mr. and Mrs. Irvine will make their home, with the former's mother.

Mr. Irvine is connected with the Ortman Motor Co. in this city.

Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington united in marriage Miss Carolina Campbell and Mr. Cornelius Parker, Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock at the Methodist parsonage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campbell of near Madison Mills, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Parker of New Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker will be at home to their many friends at the groom's home until Spring, when they will move to a farm.

They have the best wishes of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Irvin entertained with an enjoyable family dinner Thanksgiving in honor of their son Clarence Irvin who was home from Camp Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Slagle of near Seldon, delightfully entertained at an elaborate dinner Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Marion Slagle, daughter, Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Perrill, sons Herbert and Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. James Mark and daughter, Anna Lois.

Light and Shadow

That the great war is at the present time turning a criti- cal corner, seems to be the general feeling among the people of the allied nations and, judging from outside indications, the same feeling is held by the people of the Central powers.

There is little doubt, however, that for the first time since hostilities began, the carefully laid plans of the German Gen- eral Staff have been completely upset, and there is every mani- festation of a hurried and, perhaps, flurried endeavor to rear- range plans to meet unforeseen developments.

The Italian armies have checked and turned back the Huns at the Piave and that is more than close observers be- lieved they could do at the time the Austro-German offensive was launched.

The successful advance of the British in the Cambrai re- gion has amazed the German commanders, who had relied upon bad weather and impassable roads and bogs to compel the British to lay up for the winter.

The Haig and Byng offensive combined with the defeat in Italy has brought on an unusual activity which seems a near approach to panic in the German ranks.

While German propagandists have brought on the an- archy and ruin in Russia, neither the most optimistic pro- German nor the most pessimistic pro-Ally, will assert that the end has come in Russia.

It is one thing to bring about a condition of anarchy and quite another to bring order out of chaos and that is what Germany must do, if she is to reap the full measure of benefit from her treachery.

Lenine and Trotsky may upset order in Petrograd and Moscow, many seize the nominal authorities, corrupt a few army leaders and bring about a collapse of the de facto gov- ernment but that's negative. They have not yet erected any government in Russia.

Germany may now see, for the first time, the enormity of the menace she has builded along the eastern front. Ger- many can't feed Russia and Russia, starving and irrespons- ible, will be far more dangerous as a foe than Russia well fed and well ordered, but at war.

Northeastern Prussia has suffered from Cossack raids al- ready and that experience is the big night mare of the war to the German people.

Bribing a few Russian traitors is not difficult—that Ger- many has done. Controlling the vast hordes of Cossacks is quite another matter and that Germany has now undertaken, and must do, to obtain any benefit.

Again it may be asserted that Lenine and Trotsky are not the Russian people and Petrograd and Moscow are not Russia.

The developments of the war, this week have brought their bright flashes of hope and good cheer and also their dark shadows, but the brilliant achievements of the allied armies shine out clearly and encouragingly through the black pall of Russia's ignominious collapse.

Our Quota of Work

It is regrettable that the good women of this community should be elided by the district superintendent of the Red Cross for failure to come forward with their full quota of war relief work.

We feel that we know just why the present condition ex- ists. It is not through any lack of patriotism nor through any desire to shirk the work that this county is short in its quota of Red Cross work. There has been a lack of con- centration of effort, a scattering of the forces and a division of energy that has resulted in a collective result, in many lines of a activity, which will, we know, bring the grand total con- tribution of our good women up to the required standard.

It is scarcely fair to single out one line of activity and point to the results in that particular line as falling short and, therefore, being just ground for criticism.

In order, though, to obtain proper credit, in order to stand right with the district, state and national authorities having the great war aid work under direction, in order that our pa- triotic women workers may not be misunderstood, it is import- ant that there should be a general controlling force recognized, and that the work be directed toward those activities, recog- nized by the national officials, as a part of the government service.

The Red Cross is one of the great national and interna- tional agencies and we must see to it that our proper share in that great effort, is done promptly and efficiently.

The women of Fayette county are to be congratulated on their splendid efforts. They should be given credit for the great work done, and doubtless are given that credit, but here- after they should see to it that our credit with the larger work- ing forces, is kept up.

This does not mean that we must relinquish any of the praiseworthy activities but, it does mean that we must speed up on the larger ones.

Poetry For Today

ITALY.

Thou art bleeding, Italy!
 Rubies burn thy belting sea,
 Dripping rubies from thy heart;
 And afar we pale, and start
 As we first had felt a blow,
 Though a thousand scars we bear.
 Little of our world we know,
 Little of her ways can read;
 Lies her head we know not where;
 Or her shifting hands and feet;
 But her heart we know is set
 (Like a song within a deed,
 Like a jewel all may see,
 Like a glory all may wear)
 Golden warm in Italy;
 And, there wounded, we must bleed.

Thou art bleeding, Italy!
 Hot the tears that blind us; we
 See no sin of all thy sins.
 All we know is in our veins—
 Veins that burn with hurt to thee.
 All we know is, thou dost call;
 That thou in the darkness strove,
 And the spear is in thy side.
 All we know is that we love,
 And the blows that on thee fall
 Fall as blows upon a bride.
 Italy!

USE WATER ROUTE TO NEW ENGLAND RELIEVE RAILROADS

(By American Press)

Pittsburgh, Nov. 30.—To relieve the coal shortage, more sea-going tugs should be furnished to move coal boats of stallow draught from the ports of Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York to New England points, according to the general operating committee of the railroads war branch, which made the suggestion through General Black, chief of en- gineers, and Dr. H. A. Garfield, federal fuel administrator.

Companies operating steamship lines on the Great Lakes were asked by the committee to extend the na- vigation season as long as possible, with a view of relieving the railroads. Amplifying the order issued Wednes- day diverting traffic from the Pitts- burgh gateway, another order has been sent to all eastern railroads, the committee announced, providing "that all freight, westbound, from New England, New York, Philadel- phia, Baltimore, Harrisburg and in- termediate points, be embargoed and diverted to northern routes."

The committee adopted a resolu- tion asking the eastern seaport lines to organize overseas committees, one for each of the ports of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk. The object of these com- mittees, says a statement issued in re- gard to them, is "to secure close co- operation with the allied overseas executive committee and with the United States authorities, and there- by obtain the best results in the rail movement of overseas traffic."

It was indicated that much of the session of the committee, which was executive, was taken up with the New England coal situation, and the effects on general railroad conditions of the continued attempts to move coal by railroad into that district to relieve the shortage. After canvass- ing the situation the committee came to the conclusion that the water route to New England is the only means of solving the coal shortage problem there without creating a new problem in the greater blocking of railroad traffic. More serious congestion will occur this winter unless this water route is opened up, said the state- ment.

SPEED INDUSTRIES AND FOREIGN TRADE IS RECOMMENDED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, November 30.—Ameri- can industries must be stimulated to high production and America's for- eign trade must develop to enable this country to use its full strength in winning the war, declares the Na- tional Foreign Trade Council in a re- port submitted today to President Wil- son.

"Practically all the money in the Allied portions of the world, and most of that held by neutrals, in time, can be made available for our war em- ergencies if our production constantly provides a proper basis for foreign trade," says the Council.

The report was prepared by Lewis

SOMETHING'S WRONG

E. Pierson, chairman of the board of directors of the Irving National Bank of New York. It will be submitted to the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives and to the Finance Committee of the Sen- ate.

It was drawn up in an effort by the Council to aid the government in the fixing of commodity prices and in the taxation of business profits. These problems are described by the Coun- cil as perhaps the most serious and difficult the government has ever en- countered in its relation to business interests.

Asserting that in an ideal plan for price fixing and profit taxing, high production and not low prices should be the controlling consideration the report says:

"If the final determination of the war is to be measured to any consid- erable extent by the relative economic power of the belligerents and of course, it will be so measured, the ex- istence of the things which money can buy will be of far greater im- portance than the possession of money itself."

That leads up to the statement that most of the money in the Allied and neutral world can be made available for our war emergencies by proper mainten- ance of foreign trade. For it is for- eign trade, says the report, that "is the source from which the greater portion of our gold must come, and from which our national gold reserve will derive its greater security."

Foreign trade also provides the possibility of keeping the entire na- tional energy at all times employed in profitable production by creating a foreign demand for products for which there would be no demand at home.

Effectiveness of American partici- pation in the war, says the National Foreign Trade Council, demands the maintenance of production in prac- tically all lines at the maximum ca- pacity, and the maintenance of foreign trade during the war is a most efficient means of preventing distur- bance of credit, insuring funds with which to meet the needs of govern- ment in taxation or loans, stabiliz- ing conditions of industry and main- taining the economic structure of the nation.

ENTERTAINMENT SCORES SUCCESS

The High School Glee Clubs and Orchestra entertainment of Wednesday night at the High School Auditorium delighted a large audience through every minute and earned the bursts of applause which followed every number.

The program was divided into three parts, the Glee Club concert numbers, a happy interlude between the comedy of "Ye Ancient Minstrels" and the Patriotic Pageant and songs which made for instant popularity in part third.

The Curtain rose upon a brilliant ensemble of burnt cork artists, the "real things," forming a huge semi-circle against a back ground of the stars and stripes.

Costumes of white trousers, with dark coats, plug hats, big red and yellow ties and huge chrysanthemum boutonnieres, were most effective and ridiculous features, ambitiously contrived, added to the clever make ups. With Richard Haynes, handsome and dignified in the role of interlocutor, the choruses, song specialties and exchange of jokes and banter moved off with snap and dash to the entertainment of the spectators.

Joe Wilson and Pete Willis, two live minstrel wires, did fine comedy work, their songs, "Travel, Travel Little Star" and "Gay Parle" bringing encore after encore. W. H. Edwards sang a catchy song, "Mammy Blossom's Possum Party" to guitar accompaniment, with chorus, and Bernard Smith pulled off his song and dance, "How's Everything in the Dixie" with the true minstrel air.

Young Smith's agile dancing was a feature of the minstrels.

The audience rose to sing with the Glee Clubs, "Star Spangled Banner" at the introduction of part second.

The Glee Club numbers had been admirably selected and were full of melody and well sung, under Miss Sheen's splendid direction and training. Their best number was the last of part second "Even Bravest Heart" (Faust) Gounod.

The Girls' Glee Club contributed two beautiful numbers, "The Garden of Sleep" DiLara—and "Deep River," the plaintive haunting melody of the latter brought out in excellent harmony.

For the first time the girls all wore costumes in unison, white middie suits with black ties, and the effect was most attractive and in accord with the idea of a school entertainment.

There was a capital quartet, composed of Willis Willis, Mallow Hall, Arthur Lewis and Arthur Rothrock, and their numbers received some of the heartiest applause of the evening, bringing them back till they ran out of encores.

The patriotic style now in vogue characterized each number of part third. The exceedingly pretty and taking song "Knit—Knit—Knit" — from Jack-o-Lantern, sung by Misses Mary Ellen Bliss, Eleanor Jones and Helen McKee, with full chorus was made doubly attractive by the girls carrying their knitting bags and busily knitting while they sang.

Mallow Hall sang the popular "Joan of Arc," with effective chorus in the distance.

"Good-bye Broadway — Hello France," as sung by Willis Willis and chorus made a tremendous hit. Young Willis rose well to the highest individual work of the evening.

NAMED ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR

BENEDICT CROWELL.

In the days when Uncle Samuel had to chastise Spain a well known man whose initials were "T. R." gave up a desk as Assistant Secretary of the Navy to put on a uniform and battle. Now the Secretary of War reverses the naval precedent by asking Major Benedict Crowell, of Cleveland, O., to sell his uniform, put on civilian clothes and sit at the second desk in the War Department.

A spirited chorus "Over There" was splendidly sung by Richard Haynes and chorus.

The entertainment closed with "The Yankees Are Coming," a stirring patriotic song, words and music by Mrs. H. L. Stitt. It received much favorable comment from many who heard it for the first time.

A lion's share of the evening's plaudits ought certainly go to the splendid work of the High School orchestra in both solos and accompaniments. The orchestra shows continued improvement under Miss Mazie Kessler's competent leadership. The evening's accompaniments were Miss Marion Christopher with the orchestra, Misses Lorie King, Marie Sharp, Imogene DeWees and Marion Whelpley with the chorus and special numbers.

The entire program was put on under Miss Sheen's direction.

KEEP WAGONS OUT OF THE ALLEYS

Complaints have been made to the police regarding the practice which has become a decided nuisance in some parts of the city, of leaving wagons or other vehicles in the alleys, particularly after nightfall, although the city ordinance governing such practices forbids the leaving of vehicles in the alleys at any time.

Chief Moore has issued warning that all such vehicles must be removed at once, and if they are not removed immediately, the ordinance will be evoked and arrests made.

Citizens annoyed by vehicles in the alleys will insist upon their removal.

PRO-GERMAN WORK IN U. S. OF BRAZIL

(Associated Press Correspondence) Rio De Janeiro, November, 28.—A new paper, published in Portuguese, called the "Correio De Berlin," has begun a pro-german propaganda, opening its campaign with anathemas upon the United States, which it declares has coerced the latin republics to break relations with Germany.

Desperate attempts are being made here to undermine American solidarity but they are not making much impression on the Brazilian people.

SOUVENIR HUNTER IS ACTIVE MAN ON THE BATTLEFIELDS

Behind British Lines in France, November 22.—(Correspondent of The Associated Press)—In every battalion at the front there are a number of confirmed souvenir hunters, and sometimes their influence is so potent that an epidemic for collection spreads through all ranks, and the main topic of conversation is souvenirs in all their varieties.

In every walk of trench life one meets the man with strong acquisitive habits; in civilian life he might develop his bent into either finance, art, stamp collecting or possibly burglary. In the trenches the fully developed passion for collecting souvenirs is often a trial for the collector, for a collection of any kind sooner or later demands a place to put it in, and there is no place in knapsack and dug-out life for a store of gathered treasures.

The available war souvenirs are seldom of much value, but there is a considerable variety of things to choose from in most battle areas. In the early days of the war, the German helmets were valued souvenirs, for old style German helmet was substantial and picturesque, brilliant with heavy metal garniture. There were also unusual varieties, like the quaint Bavarian shakos, while one or two cavalry regiments provided a rare variety of headgear which has not been seen on the Western front since the first year of the war.

The German helmet of today has depreciated even more than the German mark. It is no longer even leather, but a kind of light paper-felt. The metal spike has given place to one of wood or composition. The solid brass regimental badge is now a thin tinsel plaque. The true collector cares very little for the modern helmet and has no interest at all in the little round convict cap which so many German prisoners wear. If the German only knew it, a sure passport to warm and instant favor on surrender is a decent helmet. It attracts immediate attention and the fortunate owner is given cigarettes and other marks of favor by his delighted captor, instead of being merely herded to the rear without ceremony.

POLICE WILL AID THE DRAFT OFFICIALS

(By American Press)

Washington, Nov. 30.—Every police official in the country will become a part of the great machine organized for building the national army, under war department plans announced by Provost Marshal General Crowder. Postal authorities also will play an active part in helping to carry out the new regulations and the department believes that with the aid of these two agencies local exemption boards will be greatly assisted in registering the men and getting them to the training camps as they are called.

Police throughout the nation will be instructed to take into custody men who fail to report for physical examination or who violate any of the new rules and regulations. They also will be charged to arrest and deliver to camps men who have been indicted into the military service by the local boards and who fail to entrain for mobilization. Such men are classed under military law as deserters and rewards of $50 will be paid for their arrest and delivery at the camps.

All the elaborate machinery of the postoffice department will be used to see that questionnaires are delivered to the men and returned by them within the seven days' time limit allowed for filling them out.

EGGS

Are your hens laying? If not you are losing money every day. Feed is expensive and why feed a lot of hens that don't lay?

Eggs are now selling at 50 cts. to 75 cts. a dozen in the cities and they may reach $1.00.

People who fed the famous "Prescription No. 4" t. their hens last season are stocking up again this season. It will fill your egg basket if properly fed, and no person with a half dozen or more hens should be without it this winter.

"Prescription No. 4" forces hens to lay and keeps poultry healthy. A hen can be made to lay out her entire life crop of eggs in one or two years instead of being five years at it. The present world's record is 332 eggs for one hen. Many hens do not lay one-third that number. If you desire more eggs than you ever got before this season of the year, try "Prescription No. 4," the sure egg producer.

We can show you many testimonials from chicken farm owners, including the following from the manager of the great Hartman Poultry Farm at Columbus.

"Columbus, Ohio.
"It is a wonderful egg producer and feed saver as well. Many of our hens layed right through the moulting season, thanks to your Prescription No. 4. We have a capacity for 20,000 layers and intend to use it throughout our plant."

AUSTRIA WILL TRY BOLSHEVIKI

(By Associated Press Dispatch.)

Washington, November 30.—Austria's decision to line up with Germany in opening peace negotiations with the Bolsheviks may possibly have some effect upon the administration's disinclination toward a declaration of war on the dual monarchy, but the general impression here is that it will not bring about any tangible developments for the present at least.

UNION SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Thanksgiving Union Services at the First Presbyterian Church were full of interest, Thursday night.

The various ministers of the city participated; Rev. Gage presiding, with Rev. Rejy, Rev. Cherrington and Rev. Hart taking part in the opening services.

Rev. Groves delivered an excellent sermon, taking as his general theme "Causes for National Gratitude."

The choir contributed a fine anthem.

The collection was taken for the benefit of the Welfare Association, bringing in $20.

Mr. Groves took for his text the story of the ten lepers, only one of whom returned to give thanks. He said in part: "Many are poor because they have not attained the virtue of gratitude. Riches are measured not by possession, but by appreciation. He emphasized the fact that from the landing of the Pilgrims to the present hour, our nation had been a plan of God to give to the world the blessings of democracy and brotherhood. He recounted the unprecedented blessings in bountiful harvests of the past year and our urgent need to bow before the great Giver of all 'lest we forget' our God and the responsibility that rests upon us because we have been so highly favored."

Mr. Groves said, "that the grim specter of famine was stalking abroad in the world and nations were dependent upon our generosity. He said that at this crisis in the world's history that we were thankful for many things, that with a clear conscience we entered the war only for the defense of the ideals of our nation and the principles of justice and brotherhood. He praised the high moral tone of our training camps, the Y. M. C. A. and the Red Cross. A plea was made that while our boys heroically fight our battles at the front that we loyally keep the 'home fires burning' by supplying, money, food, fellowship and good cheer."

The speaker closed with the thought that in this dark hour he was an optimist, that "God was standing in the shadow keeping watch above his own" and that the Golden age of the world's history was yet to be, and that Jesus Christ was the Prince of Peace and the world yet would learn of him and swords would be beaten into plowshares, and the song of the Bethlehem Angels would finally be sung by the whole world.

BRITAIN'S BIG FLEET KEEPS BUSY

What the Greatest Fleet in the World Is Doing While Waiting to Get Smash at Hiding German War Vessels.

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Base of British Grand Fleet, November 15.—The head of the British Admiralty, speaking the other day in the House of Commons, flung out a challenge to the German navy.

He said, "I disclose no secret, or if it is a secret I disclose a fact which I should be glad to tell the enemy, when I say that the British Grand Fleet, in its northern base, lies behind no shore defenses, but relies on its own strength alone."

There are people in the United States who do not appreciate the activities of the British navy, in its home waters, who think that it lies in idleness, like the German High Seas fleet, behind impenetrable landlocked bases.

For the purpose of removing his impression, the Associated Press representative was asked to visit the Grand Fleet, live on board the first-line battleships, and observe just what sort of a day's work it puts in day after day and week after week.

Ceaseless activity is the motto of the Grand Fleet. Neither men nor ships are permitted to gather rust or barnacles. From its base at the northern tip of the British Isles, it sweeps day and night the 140,000 square miles of the North Sea on ceaseless vigil, in unflagging hope that one day its watching will be rewarded by a meeting with the enemy under circumstances wherein he cannot avoid battle.

Moreover, this sweeping of the North Sea is no mere aimless patrol. In most casual moves of ships and men there is always a directing mind and a directing plan. The North Sea is as well swept in relation to its size as the drawing room of a well ordered house. The enemy's coastline is still the British Navy's frontier.

The harbor which has been the home of the Grand Fleet for three years, is probably the finest of its kind in the world. The whole area comprised in this British northern base, is about equal to the hundred-odd square miles which the Germans evacuated in France last spring.

The battleship squadron, for example, within their own particular section of this great base, have room for every kind of practice manoeuvres, including target practice.

On a sunny afternoon, the correspondent saw eight battleships at anchor or target practice, a detachment of cruisers in manoeuvres, a sea plane balloon ship at work under conditions simulating those of actual warfare, and off around the edges, various operations by innumerable small craft and auxiliaries.

Night target practice, which also is conducted within the harbor, is always an interesting sight. The battleships steam down the nine-mile course. Suddenly a searchlight picks up a target. Instantly every turret is trained, every gun directed. Then a button is pressed somewhere, and the guns speak as with one voice in a gigantic broadside that awakens the echoes from the hills.

There is an infinite variety to the turret practice on a big battleship.

The officer in charge of the turret speaks: "An enemy shell has come in through the turret, killing men numbers 1, 3, 4, and 6. Right gun disabled. Connection with rest of ship lost. Carry on." The "dead men" file off to one side and watch their comrades work as they would in actual battle. There is the zest of a game to it.

The officer speaks again: "Shell has hit turret, killing all men except Number 1 and 3. Number 3 is seriously wounded. Ammunition hoisting machinery disabled. Fire started in pile of waste behind gun. Carry on!" The single wounded man left in the turret must now endeavor to keep the guns in action single-handed, besides dealing with a fire and a seriously wounded man. The "dead men" stand along the edge of the turret and watch their comrades' efforts to "carry-on" with interest and amusement.

It is play, but play with a deadly efficiency behind it for it is intended that in actual battle, there shall not be a single possibility with which these men will not be ready to deal.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carey spent Thanksgiving at Marion.

TAX AFFECTS PARCEL POST

(By American Press)
Columbus, Nov. 30.—Stocks, bonds, deeds, all sorts of business papers, steamship tickets, playing cards and parcel post are principally affected by the government war stamp taxes, effective tomorrow, Dec. 1. Exemptions from the stamp tax is given government, state, municipal and county bonds and to stocks and bonds issued by co-operative building and loan associations.

Some of the stamp taxes are: On parcel post packages on which the postage amounts to 25 cents or more, a tax of 1 cent for each 25 cents or fraction thereof; on playing cards, a tax of 5 cents on each deck in addition to the present tax; voting by proxy at any company or association meeting, except religious, 10 cents a vote; powers of attorney, 25 cents; bonds of indebtedness, 5 cents for each $100 or fraction thereof; indemnity and surety bonds, 50 cents, with an additional tax of 1 cent for every $1 above par at which sale is made; issuance of capital stock, 5 cents on each $100 or fraction; capital stock sales or transfers, 2 cents on each $100 or fraction; sales of produce for future delivery, 2 cents for each $100 or fraction; drafts and checks, 2 cents each—where check is for more than $100, tax will be 2 cents for each $100 or fraction.

WOMAN KIDNAPED

(By American Press)
Chicago, Nov. 30.—Branded on her breast and back, apparently with acid, and dazed as if from drugs, Mrs. Ida Browning, 24, wife of a wealthy farmer of Sonoma, Cal., was found semi-conscious in the Union station here. She revived two hours later at a hospital and told of having been kidnaped at a railroad station in Santa Fe, N.M., and held by a man and woman, who, under the pretense of helping her, had enticed her into an automobile, taken her to a room. The woman's husband has arrived here.

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It, Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.
Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.
No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad complexion or pimply face.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the remedy for all skin eruptions, pimples, acne, and all the troubles of the skin. They are the most effective remedy for all skin troubles. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 50c and $1.00 per box. All druggists.

ARMY CONTROL MAY BE GIVEN TO THE FRENCH

(By American Press)
Paris, Nov. 30.—The interallied war conference, which opened here today, will probably give general direction of all the armies on all war fronts into the hands of France, in carrying out the demand in the United States and elsewhere for coordination and unification so as to defeat Germany in shortest possible time.
The conduct of the naval operations will be turned over to the British and the control of economic questions such as resources and finance will be left to the United States.
The above radical departure in the conduct of the war on the part of the entente nations is understood to have been given hearty sanction by Colonel House, head of the American mission; Premier Lloyd-George and Foreign Minister Balfour of England; Premier Clemenceau of France and representatives from Italy, Roumania, Serbia, Belgium and other nations at war with the central empires.
Every phase of the war will be canvassed and scrutinized and it is possible that a restatement of the entente's war aims may be made. It is understood that the United States favors such a restatement at this time, in view of the situation which has developed in Russia, through the efforts of the Bolsheviks to secure a separate peace.

REVOLT IN PETROGRAD.

During the Leninist uprising in Petrograd in July a party of government troops, on the roof of the public library, raked the street below in which a large mob was making a hostile demonstration. Scores of persons were killed and wounded before the crowd escaped into the side streets. In the foreground is a mother shielding her child. These bloody street battles are reported to have been duplicated last week.

a gas oven exploded, burning her face in a shocking manner.

Mrs. Robbins had lighted the gas in the oven and a few minutes later when she opened the door to the oven the explosion occurred, the flame evidently having become extinguished when she had closed the oven door.

A portion of her face was badly blistered, and her eyebrows and hair saved. Timely assistance probably saved Mrs. Robbins from much more serious burns than she sustained.

SATURDAY LAST DAY FOR PARCELS

Tomorrow is the last day for sending parcels to the soldiers in France, with assurance that they will arrive on time, and all persons who wish to remember friends in the ranks of the American Army in France are urged to mail their packages under direction of the postmasters of the various offices in the county, not later than Saturday night.

The remembrances to the soldiers have been many, but there is plenty of room for more gifts. Friends are especially urged to send letters, pictures and cards through the usual channels.

CAMBRAI UNDER BRITISH GUN FIRE

(By American Press)

London, Nov. 30.—The town of Cambrai is now directly under fire of British cannon, General Haig's men hammering hard along their front in the Cambrai region. A slight gain was recorded.

The battling of the infantry for the possession of Fontaine Notre Dame and between Moeuvres and Bourlon has ceased temporarily, but at times the artillery fire is of great intensity in these regions. Near Poelcapelle and between Belecambre and Ghentvelt and in the Arras sector the big guns of both groups of belligerents are maintaining a heavy bombardment.

Attacks on the Belgian position east of Berckem by Bavarian storming troops netted the enemy some prisoners and two machine guns, but another hostile attack on Belgian troops in the neighborhood of Aschhoek was beaten off after a bitter fight.

After violent preparation the Germans in great strength undertook a raid north of Carnillet, in the Champagne, but were beaten back by the French troops, who inflicted heavy losses on them. Two other German attacks, one near Beattincourt on the right bank of the Meuse, and the other west of Vaux Les Damloup, on the left bank, also were repulsed, while a French raid on the German lines in the Argonne, west of the Aire, was carried out successfully and resulted in the taking of German prisoners.

Along the entire Italian front the batteries of the contending armies are maintaining a violent bombardment, but no infantry actions of importance are reported from this theater of the world war. The German war office reports that Italian attacks against the Austro-German mountain positions on the west bank of the Brenta and on Monte Tomba failed.

An important meeting of the supreme war council, composed of representatives of the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy, will be held shortly, at which the military operations on the entire western front will come under consideration.

SINN FEINERS ARE STILL VERY RESTLESS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Dublin, November 28.—The Sinn Fein agitation continues to steam without boiling over into actual rebellion. The purpose of the Sinn Feiners is alleged to be to keep the nerves of the government on edge, to produce a series of small disturbances, to create a feeling of uneasiness and to maintain a holding down Ireland by force. Their action is said to be that the military measures taken against them prejudice England in neutral countries, and in Russia.

The attitude of the military commander is that it is their business to check anything that could facilitate another armed revolt. The last time they were caught napping and besides occurred a formidable list of casualties in killed and wounded. The government had to pay three million pounds because it was obliged to admit responsibility for the failure to protect the lives and property of the peaceful citizens. They are resolved that that shall not happen again. That is why they have forbidden drilling, or uniforms, or processions.

A disciplined body of men marching in military formation, and trained to the word of command, even if armed only with hurleys could outmaster any local police force and control any town. Hence such processions are prohibited. Today there were to be Sinn Fein national parades in uniform all over Ireland with a great meeting in the neighborhood of the Carragh camp. That has been prevented.

The military authorities are particularly keen on preventing the acquisition of arms. The Sinn Feiners main hope of getting arms is not from Germany but from the British army, and there is a constant activity to steal or purchase arms from individual soldiers.

For the present the government is in the position that through the convention it is offering the Irish people home rule. But the convention drag along without coming to a decision. If it should not form a plan of government, Ireland will be left where it was at the beginning, with the knowledge that there can be home rule for twenty-six counties, and that Belfast will not come in and cannot be forced in. The situation then would be that the government would be obliged to suppress the Sinn Feiners.

LENINE THREATENS REPUDIATION OF DEBTS BY RUSSIA

(By American Press)

Petrograd, Nov. 29.—Nicholai Lenin, leader of the Bolshevik government, today threatened to declare Russia's obligations and debts to other nations invalid unless those nations accept the Bolshevik proposals for a general armistice of all belligerents.

From Moscow it is reported that soldiers are returning home from the fronts in vast numbers. Of 11,000 formerly stationed at Khodynka barracks, it was asserted that only 559 remained, and at Khamovniki barracks, 700 out of 18,000.

The Bolshevik government received formal notification from Ensign Krylenko, its commander in chief, that a complete cessation of all hostilities on all fronts was in sight through acquiescence of all German front commanders for negotiation of an armistice.

Krylenko announced that his envoys "had returned from the German lines bearing the German command in chief's official consent to negotiate an armistice over all the Russian front. At the meeting Sunday plenipotentiaries from both sides will confer. The German, it was stated, will be represented by the north army commander.

The very last vestige of support of former Premier Kerensky in the capital vanished when the doubtful elements in the garrison decided to support the military revolutionary committee.

DEBT TO AMERICA

(By American Press)

Washington, Nov. 30.—Cancellation of Russian war debts to the United States would mean sweeping aside a bill of nearly $160,000,000. This amount, already paid out on an authorization of $325,000,000, has been expended in the United States, chiefly in paying munitions debts, which otherwise might have gone to the board.

American government officials have held that it was wise to give Russia support in recent months because of her sore straits, particularly because some American industries would have suffered severely had their Russian bills not been paid.

Congressmen have manifested a disposition recently to inquire into the Russian loans and to oppose further disposition of funds until Russia appears stable.

While arrangement of a Bolshevik armistice with Germany appears to be only a matter of a brief time, some authorities here feel that a strong figure will arise to stir the nation as a whole to break this agreement.

A WONDERFUL PLAY AT THE COLONIAL.

"The Deemster," a big photoplay production rivaling anything heretofore shown here in highly dramatic situations, genuine heart interest and superb setting, proved a Thanksgiving attraction that drew immense audiences to the Colonial both for matinees and night showings.

It is too stupendous a photo drama for one day's showing, and will be continued over Saturday night, giving people in both town and country the opportunity to see it.

"The Deemster," by Hall Caine, with the son of the author, Derwent Hall Caine, in the stellar role, provided one of the big attractions of the legitimate stage, and gives to the screen one of its foremost successes, while, a rare occurrence, the actor is equally a photo play success.

The play stands out as a vivid life drama from the "Isle of Man," realistic to the last degree in its reproduction of the picturesque life and wonderful sea scenes. The atmosphere of the island and its rollicking fisher folk is so visualized that one feels as if a personal tour had been made. Nothing was ever thrown on a screen more dramatic than the murder trial on Tynwald Hill, when the father passed judgment of a life in solitude upon his son and multitudes from every part of the island stand in gaping amazement. The fight on the cliff the burial of the Deemster's son at sea, the burning ship are all absorbing scenes and through the play the love of Daniel and Morna runs with thrilling interest.

Derwent Hall Caine is magnificent in the leading role, with Marion Swayne opposite, and each player rises splendidly to the requirements of the play.

MAKING DYES IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Associated Press Correspondence)

London, November 22.—The manufacturing of dyes in Great Britain and supplying the British trade which heretofore had been dependent almost entirely upon Germany has proved very successful according to the report of a company subsidized by the government for that purpose.

The production of dyes continues to be limited by the shortage of certain materials but the supply has been increased during the year and the variety of dyes extended. Co-operation among dye manufacturers is urged to increase the output of dyes and the need of further capital is emphasized by the fact that the recently published accounts of five of the German dye manufacturing firms show assets amounting to 35,000,000 pounds, including cash resources of ten millions.

60,000 INVOLVED

(By American Press)

Chicago, Nov. 30.—A strike vote by some 60,000 packing house employees in the United States has been ordered by representatives of the International unions affected. Notice of this action was telegraphed to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. The strike vote is returnable in ten days and will represent all stockyards employees from butchers and cutters to electricians and engineers. A strike vote will not necessarily mean a strike, John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, said, "but will authorize the union officials to call a strike in the event that their negotiations with the packers now under way fail. The men seek wage increases and better working conditions.

WILL SAVE SUGAR

(By American Press)

Washington, Nov. 30.—An annual saving of 16,000,000 pounds of sugar and 12,000,000 pounds of shortening is what the cracker manufacturers of the country estimate they will accomplish under the new rules made for them by the food administration. The rules require that an average of not more than 17 pounds of shortening, of which not more than 10 pounds shall be animal fats, shall be used in 195 pounds of flour, meal or mixture for sponge goods, and not more than 26 pounds, of which not more than half shall be animal fats, in sweet goods. No sugar is allowed for sponge goods and not more than 53 pounds for sweet goods. The administration has asked that manufacturers keep below these maximum figures and has given warning that a further reduction may be necessary later.

LIEUT. DAUGHERTY HOME ON VISIT

Washington friends will be interested in the following article concerning Draper M. Daugherty, formerly of this city, which appeared in a recent issue of a Columbus newspaper:

"When Draper M. Daugherty came home yesterday from Ft. Sheridan with the commission of first lieutenant in the regular army, it was the first time in three years that he had seen his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Daugherty, 481 East Town street.

"During that time Lieutenant Daugherty has seen hard service in the regular army. He was in Truck Companies Nos. 4 and 63 in Pershing's army in Mexico, and came within a stone's throw of seeing Villa in his own state, Chihuahua.

"Lieutenant Daugherty, prior to his enlistment in St. Louis three years ago, attended Culver Military Academy."
